Kamayan Feast

A Kamayan Feast is a communal-style buffet of delicious Filipino food featuring seafood, grilled meats, vegetables, fruits and garlic rice served on fresh banana leaves. This is a great way to enjoy delicious food and have a great time with a group. In Tagalog, kamayan means “by hand” as this feast is typically eaten by hand.

The feast pictured feeds approximately two (2) people and features dishes curated by the chef such as smoked Mackerel, garlic fried rice, crispy pata (pork leg), fresh fruits, bistek (thinly-sliced beefsteak braised in soy sauce, calamansi juice, garlic, ground black pepper, and onions cut into rings), longanisa (spanish sausage), salted duck eggs, lumpia (fried spring rolls), and more.

$80

Wok & Roll would be happy to customize your feast. They also offer a variety of exclusive delicacies that can be added on for an additional fee.

Please allow 20-30 minutes for preparation of this feast or a feast curated for 3-4 people.

Larger groups are welcome; but feasts for larger groups must be ordered at least 8 hours in advance.

Please contact Wok & Roll at 775.227.6400 to place an order for your large group.
